The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

3,175

REPAYING THE COMPLIMENT.

Next month the granite manufacturers of Barre will repay the compliment paid them by the Quincy manufacturers last summer by giving them a similar entertainment. An invitation has already been extended in the name of the local association, and has been accepted by Quincy, so that nothing remains but the fixing of the exact time and the details of the entertainment. No efforts will be spared to make the visit of the Massachusetts granite men enjoyable, as the local men are mindful of the fine hospitality extended them last summer. Although the details of the visit are not completed, not the least important feature will be, of course, the inspection of the external aspects of the granite industry here, visits to some of the large cutting plants and a trip to the quarries. The social features will be made as attractive as possible so that the Quincy men may go back feeling satisfied with their trip. The Quincy manufacturers, for the royal treatment accorded their Barre brethren in the business last summer, deserve a thoroughly good time, and will undoubtedly get it.

"Remember the caucus tonight," were the final words of the Stanton Barre Times to the Republicans of that city yesterday. And they did, incidentally not forgetting DeBoer either. Already in only two caucuses, 17 of Washington county's 83 delegates are instructed for the Washington county man who isn't making any canvass—St. Albans Messenger.

The Messenger must apologize. The distinction of being the supporter of Stanton in Barre belongs to the Telegram. The Times believes in Mr. DeBoer, believes he is the best qualified to fill the office of governor, and hopes and expects to see him in the office next year.

The negro, octoroon, Hannah Elias, of New York, who admits having squeezed a fabulous sum of money from John Platt of that city, is jeered derisively by a New York mob, while the old simpleton, Platt, is shielded at his home under pretence of sickness. Platt is, however, getting his deserts through the columns of the New York press. The old man's confession that he masqueraded before the woman under the name of A. H. Green clears the mystery regarding the murder of that honored citizen but does not remove the stain from himself.

The Swanton Courier hears from one of the "foremost politicians" that the DeBoer movement is on the wane. This foremost politician must have been looking eastward through a piece of glass stained green.

With only nine Democrats in the city of Rutland, a split in the party must mean disaster. Yet we are told that the party has split, and the Republicans are going about trying to find the remnants.

So far as reported 69 delegates to the Republican state convention have been elected. Of this number 9 are for Bell, 1 for Stanton, 17 for DeBoer and 72 are unpledged.

Another class of young men and young women has gone out from Spaulding high school, to do credit to themselves and to the school which has trained them.

The reign of disorder in the Colorado mining district continues in spite of all efforts of the authorities. A heavy hand is needed at this point.

POPULAR MUSIC FREE.

Boston Sunday Herald's Song Supplements a New Feature.

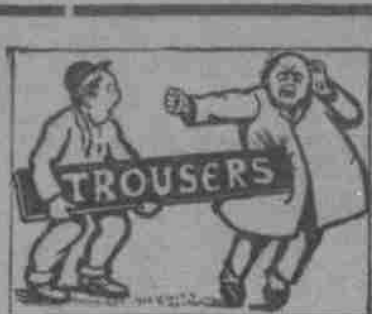

Among the popular features lately added by the Boston Sunday Herald—to those sterling characteristics which long ago assured its undoubted pre-eminence throughout New England as a weekly news magazine—none secured such instant and widespread approval as has its music supplement. "Ella," the supplement of May 29, was a pretty waltz song, happily blending humor with love interest. "Honora," issued last Sunday, is a beautiful Irish ballad, full of tender sentiment; while "Yo San" announced for next Sunday, is full of the dramatic fire of Belasco's famous Japanese drama, "The Darling of the Gods."

Who Will Claim Them?

The following letters appear on the advertised list for June 10, 1904:

Men—Thos. J. Burke, Adams Ex. Co., John Bettie, B. T. Chase, T. F. Collins, Richard Churchill, Emil Grotheau, Chas. Herbert, Christian Henderson, A. May, Bert Peiky, Rasonahine Russo, H. H. Rogers, Frank Smith, Frank Stacey, John Williams, H. P. Woodward, Lynch 100 Store.

Women—C. Belle Dugan, Mrs. Louis Guldault, Odell Lankon, Jessie McLeod, Mabel Preston, Ada Stevens, Mrs. Hannah Smith, Mrs. Helaine Thebedean, Mrs. J. G. Young.

"The spirit of wrath—not the words—is the sin,"—Pidd-head Wilson.

The New Spring Trousers will hit you right where you live. No man (except a Sage or a Gage) can afford to buy cheap Trousers—it's too expensive. "Pans" can be bought for $2.00 but they insult your legs and your purse.

Here $3.00 to $6.00 will give your legs the right standing in the world.

The new crash and flannel Trousers, $1.00 to $4.00 per pair.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

Miss Katherine Hutchinson is expected in Montpelier soon from New York where she has been playing the important part in "The Girl From Kays." After a visit with relatives there she is to go to Bar Harbor, Me., for the summer.

W. B. and John Bohanan were given a hearing before Justice of the Peace R. W. Gile in West Belton June 8, on the charge of killing a deer out of season, and were bound over for $150 each to the next term of county court. State's Attorney M. E. Leary prosecuted and V. A. Bullard appeared for the respondents.

E. & T. Fairbanks & Co., the St. Johnsbury scale manufacturers, have offered twenty-two prizes, amounting to $485, for the most valuable suggestion submitted by any of their 1,000 employees in regard to doing the work better, easier, or cheaper. The prizes will be awarded in December, and the men are already taking much interest in the contest.

Resolutions of Sympathy.

The following resolutions were drawn up by the fellow workmen over the death of the late Alexander Wilkin, who lost his life through injuries received while in execution of his duties as a stationary engineer at the plant of Marr & Gordon, June 6, 1904.

Whereas, it has pleased Almighty God in His Infinite wisdom to remove from amongst us our late fellow workman, Alexander H. Wilkin, who was a man of sterling character, a dutiful husband and a kind father, always anxious and willing to lend a helping hand or to extend sympathy to any one in time of need or in trouble; his gentle manner and many kind acts will be long and affectionately remembered by his many friends in this community and elsewhere. Therefore be it

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the Supreme Will, we deeply deplore our loss, but trust it will be his eternal gain and that he is in the enjoyment of everlasting happiness such as we could not have realized to him on earth, and be it further

Resolved, That we extend our heartfelt sympathy to those most dear and dear to him, and recommend them to Him, who alone, can comfort in the hour of affliction.

"Not dead but sleeping"
We hear the words of the Master's voice from afar, calling through gloom and the mist of tears beckoning to "rest" and rest.

"Not dead but sleeping"
It is the voice of God that comes from above He will hold the hand, he will lead the way Up to the one we love Who is waiting, just beyond.

"Not dead but sleeping"
Again the words of the Savior calm our soul, Husband and father have left our side But God will now abide And with hearts lifted up to heaven We say, "Father, Thy will be done."

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our thanks and appreciation of the many kindnesses shown us in our bereavement.

Mrs. Alex Wilkin and immediate family.

No Glass Carriage Paint Made will wear as long as Devco's. No others are as heavy bodied, because Devco's weigh 5 to 8 ounces more to the pint. Sold by Reynolds & Son.

JINGLES AND JESTS.

Deep Respect.

He isn't any monarch.
Nor a duke—not as we know.
He is only just the iceman.
But we're all a-lower 'em.
—Washington Star.

The Woman's Part.

It was a man who wrote that all men are created free and equal. It was a woman who punched holes in that declaration.—Chicago Tribune.

Tomorrow.

"Tomorrow," said a child to me.
"A wonder will occur."
I asked him what the wonder was.
He said, "Tomorrow, sir."
—Lippincott's Magazine.

Perfect Surroundings.

Thespis—So his arctic lecture was realistic?
Foyer—Yes; the most beautiful frost you ever saw.—Judge.

The Passing of the Glad Hand.

The handshake is a dangerous thing.
And in the friendly clasp
A million microbes wait with sting
More deadly than an asp.

The new met stranger's honest grip.
Which opens friendship's lock.
May incidentally let slip
Bacilli in a flock.

And so this year of politics
Be cautious, tempt not fate,
And when you get into the mix
Beware the candidate!
—Indianapolis (Ind.) News.

OPENING AND INTRODUCTION SALE

$5,000 Worth of New Merchandise at the Smallest Prices Ever Put on New Goods Here at This Time of Year.

WE DO IT AS AN ADVERTISEMENT

To get our name before the public and the people to using our goods. We think it will pay us, for once a customer here you are likely to always be one if quality and price count.

We Can Sell the Goods Much Cheaper Than We Expected

And this is how we do it: We were in New York just in time to take advantage of the great Sweetzer-Pembroke Liquidation Sale and the manufacturers cut prices as a result of a backward season. Consequently we own the goods much cheaper than we ordinarily would. Then, too, we are going to cut our own regular profit as an inducement to have the people come here and to introduce ourselves.

EXAMINE THE FLYER CAREFULLY.

It will pay you, even if you don't want more than one article, for it represents something better than you generally get for the money.
